THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART

FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

SPRING 1962

ATTENDANCE HIGHEST EVER

All previous attendance records of The Toledo Museum of Art were surpassed during its Sixtieth Anniversary Year of 1961. In a city which has an official population of 318,003, attendance at the Museum reached 370,105. As The Blade observed, "When more visitors move through the doors of a museum than there are living in the city it serves, the museum is obviously fulfilling a valuable function for the entire community."

Of this record-breaking attendance 190,576 were children. Museum Members have traditionally helped make this possible, for all Membership contributions are used to help support the Museum's free educational programs for children.

How important is attendance? In itself it means little. We are more concerned with what our visitors gain from their visits than we are with the number that pass through the entrance.

A sound educational program in the fields of art and music can enrich our lives and the lives of our children. A great collection of art, distinguished concerts of good music can do much to give color and depth to our lives.

The Museum's generous friends—its benefactors and members listed in the following pages—make possible the continuing success of the Museum's programs. Everyone is invited to join. Every new Member makes the Museum a more effective force in our community's cultural growth.

THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART

FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

SPRING 1962 New Series: Volume 5, Number 1

EDITOR: Otto Wittmann

ASSISTANT EDITOR: Millard F. Rogers, Jr.

COVER: An understanding and appreciation of art increase in the child during the year's Saturday art classes offered at the Museum.

An instructor in the Museum's free Saturday classes for children offers guidance. Approximately 2,500 children attend these classes each Saturday.

MEMBERSHIP MAKES IT POSSIBLE...

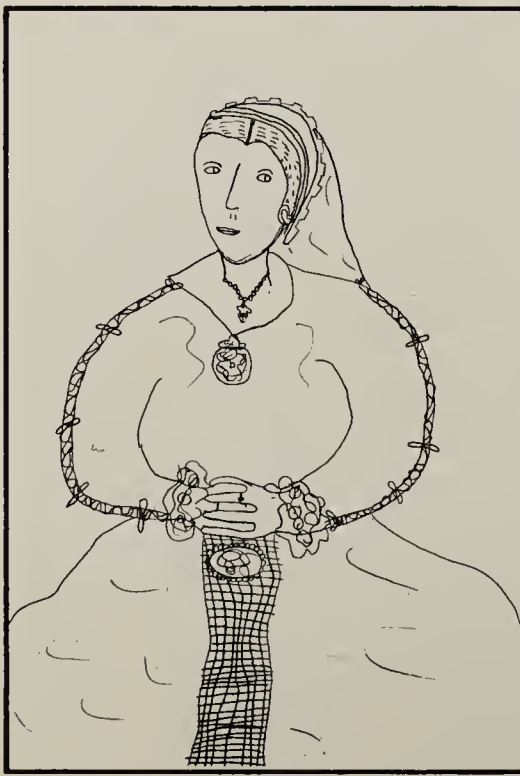

The Toledo Museum houses one of the great art collections of the United States. We have great art, a well-trained staff, and a large attendance of both children and adults. These are certainly the most essential ingredients of a successful art program for any community. Our constant concern is to bring the art, the trained staff, and our visitors together in such a way as to produce a pleasant background for learning and enjoyment. Only through Museum Membership which benefits both the community and Museum Members can this program continue to succeed.

Children can learn much from the great paintings in the Museum's galleries.

WHAT MUSEUM EDUCATION MEANS...

Ever since the Museum's first classes in 1903, art classes for children have been free of charge and open to all. Last year attendance at Saturday art classes was 67,615; and 61,107 children visited the Museum with their public and parochial school classes to see art related to their school work.

Children do not try to copy Museum masterpieces but sometimes interpret them in their own way.

Here is the way one child interpreted the Museum's great Portrait of Catherine Howard by Hans Holbein (1497-1543).
